

How to Apply for the Permit(s) RAM Defense offers:

(any of these requirements are subject to change)

- Minnesota:

- New:

- Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
- Take the RAM Defense completion certificate in person to the Minnesota county sheriff's office of the county you reside in.
- Tell them you're there to apply for a Minnesota Permit to carry.
- They will give you the application.
 - You can also get the application online (<https://dps.mn.gov/divisions/bca/bca-divisions/administrative/Documents/Permit-to-Carry-a-Pistol-Application.pdf>) before you arrive.
 - Do NOT sign it until in their presence.
 - Just in case that particular sheriff's dept. makes that demand.
- They will make a copy of the class/training certificate and your official ID.
- Pay up to $100 max for a new application, up to $75 max for a renewal, up to $85 max for a renewal of an application that expired within the last 30 days.
- The sheriff's department must issue your permit within 30 days or deny it based on requirements spelled out by law (<https://www.revisor.mn.gov/statutes/?id=624.714>).

- Renewal:

- Same process.

- Utah:

- New:

- Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
- RAM Defense will issue you a certified Utah application, a Utah fingerprint card, and a checklist of what you need to send by mail.
 - Do NOT do anything to or on the Utah card, e.g. NO writing, stains, etc.
- Fill out the top half and sign.
- Get fingerprinted by a law enforcement agency and print on the Utah card.
 - If digital, it takes longer but you get better prints.
 - If wet ink, quicker but could get worse prints the FBI rejects.
- Get a passport quality photograph of yourself.
 - Can use Dean's Photo Express in Roseau or other service.
- Make a copy of your official ID.
- Send the application by mail with $63.25 and the required attachments to the address on the application by mail.
- MN residents are NO LONGER REQUIRED to send a copy of their MN Permit to Carry as of August 2015.
- Can take up to 90 days to get the permit back.

- Renewal:

- Fill out the one page renewal application form and sign.
- Include a recent passport quality photograph.
- Pay $25 (check the fee amount just in case).
- Submit by mail or online (<https://bci.utah.gov/concealed-firearm/how-do-i-renew-my-concealed-firearm-permit/>).

- Florida:

- New:

- Complete the RAM Defense LLC COMBINED/multi-state class.
- Visit <http://www.freshfromflorida.com/Divisions-Offices/Licensing/Concealed-Weapon-License> and read/follow "First Time Applicants" section and instructions.
- Save and/or print:
 - <http://www.ramdefense.com/resources/credentials.pdf>.
 - These prove our credentials which are recognized by Florida.
 - You should submit copies of these as well as the completion certificate of the class you attended when applying to Florida.
- It will include a section to request a free FL fingerprint card.
 - Tip: could get fingerprinted for FL and/or UT (on the UT card) at the same time.
- Mail these with $97 payment (check the fee amount just in case).
